AWARENESS OF AUTISM

Wednesday 28th February
10:00am - 12:00pm
County Hall, Northallerton

This is a two-hour session where you will learn about aspects of Autism and how these aspects affect those who have Autism. The session will cover difficulties individuals with Autism can experience, communication issues, ways to overcome these issues and how it might feel to walk in an autistic person shoes. As well as practical knowledge the teaching will help the learners to have empathy towards individuals with autism.

Parenting Course opportunity

Please see the information and link from Brightsparks regarding their upcoming free support courses for parents of children aged 5-16 in York, fully funded and commissioned by City of York Council.

Their Positive Futures Support Course has been in action for a number of years now and has helped countless parents in York to build better relationships with their children.

This course is suitable for any parents of children aged 5-16 however you might find that it is of particular interest to any parents who are currently dealing with challenging situations with their children such as behavioural issues, emotional resilience or special educational need diagnoses.

The course is fully online and accessible and runs for 7 weeks at a time.

Our next course begins very soon on the 1st February.
